EVENTS OF INTEREST IN AND OUT OF TOWN

Engagement of Miss Constance Leupp and Mr. Lawrence Todd of California Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Cone Johnson Entertained Informally Last Night.
Easter Visitors—Personals.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. Leupp have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Constance D. Leupp, and Mr. Lawrence Todd of California. Mr. Leupp was commissioner of Indian affairs under the Roosevelt administration, and for many years has made his home in Washington, where he has been one of the leading newspaper correspondents.

Miss Leupp has shown much literary ability as a writer for magazines. She has been a prominent worker for the betterment of social conditions and for woman suffrage.

As president of the Consumers' League of the District, Miss Leupp played an important part in the fight for an eight-hour law for the woman workers of the District.

Mr. Todd has been engaged in newspaper work in Washington for two or three years, representing a press association at the Capitol and several newspapers located in other cities.

The wedding is to take place in May. Miss Mildred Collier of Bloomfield, N. J., and Misses Bertha and Mary Brinkley of Baltimore are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chase Boston at the Cordova over the Easter holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Cone Johnson entertained informally at dinner last night.

The assistant attorney general and Mrs. Charles Warren leave Washington today for New Bedford, Mass., where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Winslow Warren, parents of Mr. Warren.

There will be a country fair for the benefit of the infant welfare stations of the Washington Diet Kitchen Association at Friendship, Md., on the Potomac river, near the Washington road, May 1, from 2 to 7 o'clock. Some of the special features will be a sham battle by the Fort Myer troops, a dog show at which special prizes will be offered, a children's maypole dance under the supervision of Miss Hawke, a hat sale, and special amusements for children.

At 5 o'clock there will be a cabaret, with specialty and general dancing and tea. The Fort Myer Band will play during the afternoon by kind permission of the Secretary of War. Those in charge are: Mrs. George Howard, chairman; Mrs. Woodbury Blair, in charge of the cabaret and dancing; Mrs. Hagge and Mrs. Garrison McClintock, in charge of the fancy table; Mrs. Westcott, ice cream; Mrs. J. H. Merriam, hats; Mr. Basil Miles and Mr. George Martin, soft drinks; Mr. Lattauer and Mr. Hugh Legare, in charge of the ponies; Mrs. Henry Cleveland Perkins, flowers; Mrs. W. H. Hammond, candy; Mrs. Littauer, assisted by several small girls and boys, in charge of the toys; Mrs. Reynolds Hitt, Mrs. Chandler Anderson and Mrs. Thomas Laughlin, in charge of the post office.

Mrs. W. A. Seegers arrived here Tuesday morning for a short stay, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Burns C. Downey, who has been visiting Mrs. Seegers at her home in Columbia, S. C., for several weeks.

Mrs. E. R. Grandin, president; Mrs. Ernest Roberts and Mrs. W. M. Shuster, vice presidents; Mrs. Louis Korn, corresponding secretary; Miss Agnes Miller, recording secretary; and Mrs. Rosa Thompson, treasurer, officers of the board of lady managers of the Homeopathic Hospital and the following members of the board, have reserved tables for auction at the tea dance to be given by the Macdonald Chapter of the hospital, at Rascals', Easter Monday, April 5: Mrs. A. A. Birney, Mrs. J. H. Branson, Mrs. T. Janney Brown, Mrs. W. E. Cuthbert, Mrs. Brosius, Mrs. John Joy Edson, Mrs. T. Macdonald, Mrs. R. H. Pilson, Mrs. E. A. Merritt and Mrs. Richard Kingsman.
